

Praises & Requests:

- PRAISE: Churches across Venezuela continue to reach out to their communities despite the current economic crisis. At least 60 Vacation Bible Schools (VBS), representing 75 percent of the country's organized churches, are planned through September. Venezuelan Nazarene leaders are thankful for volunteers who have offered their time, energy, and resources to reach generations to come. They are counting on the prayers of Nazarenes around the world for God to revive His work in Venezuela.
- PRAISE: Recently, as Hurricane Lane approached Hawaii, the Kahului Church of the Nazarene knew they needed to assist their community. The day before the hurricane was expected to hit the island, the church helped at a condominium complex where the church has an outreach ministry. They also joined with other churches, helping the local Red Cross establish a shelter for families, the homeless, and tourists stranded on the island. Just as the hurricane was downgraded to a tropical storm, the community learned of a fire 30 minutes away in Lahaina. The church shifted from hurricane relief to helping the fire victims. Several Red Cross workers were so moved by the grace and love exhibited by the church members that they attended service at the Kahului Church the following Sunday. Give thanks for the volunteers who served selflessly during these trying circumstances, and pray that the community will continue to see the love of Christ through the efforts of His people.
